General Local News.

WEDNESDAY FEB. 28, 1877.

Good bye, February.

Did you witness the eclipse last night?

This is the last day of winter, as it is the last day of February.

When going to witness a "tie," don't fail to hang your hat upon the floor.

An employee of the E. & P. R. R., by the name of Kelley, was thrown under a locomotive at Nortonville Junction, on Monday morning, while trying to switch a train, and instantly killed.

The old jail in Calhoun, was consumed by fire last Sunday night a week ago. It belonged to L. W. Gates and was occupied by Sarah Houston, of color. Nothing was saved.

Mr. John P. Tracy, who died in this town, on 19th instant, had a policy on his life in the North Western Mutual Life Insurance Company of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for $1,000.

The body of Thomas Dean who was drowned in Green river, near Hogg's Falls, an account of which appeared in our last issue, has been recovered and taken in charge by his brother.

The steam saw mill belonging to Messrs. Moore and Woodburn of Rockport Ky., caught fire on last Sunday morning about four o'clock, and was extinguished before much damage was done. Cause of the fire unknown.

We call the attention of our merchants to the attractive advertisement of Stix, Krone & Co., on second page of this week's issue. Such opportunities as offered by them occur but seldom, and it would be well to profit by their ability to give bargains.

Our spirited, hard-coming young friend, G. D. Black, of Haynesville, we understand, will be a candidate for the Legislature. He is an estimable, worthy young man, and one that is well thought of wherever known and will make, no doubt, a good, safe representative.

Mr. C. D. Jackson, of Daviess county, has received an anonymous letter, making threats upon him $250 in money was not forthcoming as a loan. They gave him a minute's description where to leave the money but he did not get frightened, but had the letter published in the Owensboro Monitor.

A Young Visitor.
We had a call a few days ago from little Randall T. Collins, son of Mr. J. L. Collins, of this place. He said he came up to see "Barrett," as he calls us. Master Randall is a bright, handsome and intelligent boy, and is a great favorite of ours. Call again young man.

Hymenial.
Our old friend and former citizen, Col. C. T. Baird, is to be married to-morrow to Miss Mary Merriweather, daughter of David Merriweather of Frankfort, Ky.

Clad, old fellow, you can now bid adieu to clouds and storms, wintry winds and chilling blasts and forever bask in the balmy sunshine of Merriweather.

In The Wrong Corn Crib.

James L. Westerfield, living in the Beech Valley neighborhood, this county, was arrested by deputy sheriff, George W. Hunter, one day last week, upon a warrant charging him with stealing corn, and failing to give bond, was sent to jail for safe keeping. He will be tried to-day before W. F. Gregory, under the new law giving county judges final jurisdiction in Petit larceny cases.

We clip the following from the Elizabethtown News:

While on the streets of Elizabethtown a few days ago, my ears were saluted with the sound of my name. On looking around a friend handed me a small package containing a very nice centennial present from Z. Wayne Griffin, of Hartford, Ky., in the shape of a fine pipe. Many thanks to you, my son.

F. W. GRIFFIN.
The Knife and Pistol.

An altercation occurred in Beaver Dam on last Tuesday night week, between H. Frederic and Thomas Blacksmith. Blacksmith claims to have been shot twice and knocked down with a pistol. Wounds only slight. Frederic claims his coat to have been cut, and that he shot in self defense. He left the same night, and has not since been seen. They and one other person were locked in a room together, the witness gives but little satisfaction. These are the facts, as we learned them, but do not claim they are correct.

Personal Mention.

Miss Mollie Rice, of Owensboro, Ky., is visiting her cousins, Misses Ellen and Nellie Taylor, of this place.

Miss Katie Clure, one of Henderson's fair belles, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. F. Yager, of this city, returned home yesterday morning.

Mr. Ezra Meador, of Breckinridge county, who has been at the Hartford House for several days under treatment of Dr. Pendleton, for consumption, is improving in health.

John O'Flaherty, Esq., who is conducting a school in Daviess county, made a flying visit home last Thursday.

Mr. T. B. Donahoe, of Harrodsburg, the able and talented temperance lecturer of Kentucky, is spending a few days in this county. He attended the Good Templars' Convention near Fordsville, last Friday and Saturday.

Mr. R. P. Berryman represented Hartford lodge of Good Templars, in the county convention, last Friday and Saturday.

Rev. Silas Newton of the Cromwell circuit, lent his assistance in the protracted meeting here, last week.

Messrs. J. W. Feighan and Goodrich Venable, Owensboro, spent a day or two in town last week.

Dr. C. W. Layton and Mr. I. Kahn, of that thriving little town, Rockport, called on us Monday and had many words of good cheer and encouragement for our enterprise.

Married.

Wise-King.—In Hartford Ky., February 22, 1877, at the residence of Mr. Daniel Wise, by Rev. G. J. Dean, Mr. F. B. Wise to Miss Belle King.

Our earnest congratulations are extended with the sincere wish that the shadows of disappointment and sorrow may never hover o'er their pathway, but that it may lead through ways that are joyous and bright and reach at last the crown of glory of a life of love and duty—a beautiful old age.

On account of his success, our friend Flen deserves to be promoted to a professorship in the highest institute of learning in the land, for, while their exalted teachers are disseminating knowledge and wisdom to the common run of mankind, he has by this little coup de main made a King Wise.

After Many Days—The Beginning of the End.

"Bite" Fielding, the young fiend, who was sometime since indicted by the Grand Jury for beating his wife while en route, and causing the death of her unborn child, was brought to town on last Monday, and placed in charge of our efficient jailer, E. L. Wise, where he will be duly cared for until other provisions are made by Judge Murray. Deputy Sheriff Geo. W. Binger has a singular fascination for evil-doers, and the magnet to the needle is less true than he is to adhere himself to those who would outrange the laws of God and man, and try to evade the inevitable consequence, for inevitable is the fate of the law-breaker when once spotted by this uncompromising officer.

The Herald of last week boasts that Hartford has thirty-one bachelors who will each go thirty years of age. The Hartford girls are not the winning creatures we took them to be. Send some of the best looking ones down here, Bro. Barrett, and if our Calhoun girls don't take them in out of the cold you can tan us with your number fourteen brogan—McLean County Progress.

We were aware of the ability of your Calhoun girls to "take them in," for one of 'em took us in a few years ago, and we've staid took in ever since. Calhoun girls (poor things), would jump at a chance to take in our study good looking bachelors, for the Calhoun bachelors young and old, are such a "cussed" ugly looking hard set of fellows that the girls have to look from home to find husbands worth having. Now Bro. Barrett, your calling attention to our number fourteen brogan is in the same good taste of the kettle calling the pot black.

From Boone.

BOONE Feb. 22, 1877.
To the Master and Brethren of Hartford Masonic Lodge.

With deep solemnity do we mourn the loss of our worthy brother, John Parsons Tracy. Our hearts are saddened at so great a loss. The news of his death sheds a pall of gloom over our mystic hall at this place. To his wise and judicious management and brotherly efforts, do we, as a lodge, owe our existence, and we cannot at this time, express the deep love and respect we have ever cherished for him.

With that dignity and brotherly love which is ever characteristic of all true masons, did he preside over our lodge at his last meeting, and we hope to follow his examples in this life, that we may be prepared to meet him in that Grand Lodge above, where the Supreme ruler of the universe presides.

We extend our sympathies to the bereaved family, and realize with them so great a loss. Notwithstanding he has left us to mourn his loss, we realize that he preceded the requisite qualifications to gain admittance to the Grand Lodge above, where joy unspeakable and full of glory, await the faithful in this life.

Let us, brethren, strive to follow his example that we may meet him in that better world beyond this vale of tears.

E. F. TILFORD.

Since the above was put in type we received from the committee of Boone Masonic lodge, resolutions adopted by the lodge, embracing about the same expression of sorrow and remembrance. They would have been inserted but for want of space, and time to set them up.

Action of Keystone Chapter No. 110 on the Death of Brother John Parsons Tracy.

At a called communication of Keystone Chapter No. 110, at Masonic Hall, in Hartford, Ky., on Tuesday, February 20, 1877, the M. E. High Priest, Wm. H. Moore, announced the death of our beloved companion, John Parsons Tracy, at his residence in Hartford, on Monday, the 19th inst. at 11:45 o'clock, a. m. and thereupon, on motion, it was ordered that companions Z. Wayne Griffin, E. Small and A. B. Baird be appointed a committee to report appropriate action on behalf of this Chapter in regard to companion Tracy. The committee, after due consultation, made the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Death, that leveler of all human distinctions, has again invaded our ranks, and has snatched down one of our members—one long and honored vessel of the hidden mysteries of Masonry, thus again reminding us of the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death. Therefore

Resolved—That the death of companion Tracy is an irreparable loss to our Order, as he was one of the most exemplary of our Chapter, demonstrating by his zeal and attachment for our Order and its rites, an abiding faith in their divine origin.

Resolved—That, as companion Tracy was an unusually active member of our body, seldom, if ever, failing to attend its called communications, thus attesting his attachment to the fraternity, his vacant seat in our Chapter to day admonishes us that we too are passing away.

Resolved—That in all the relations of life companion Tracy was a true man and Mason; as husband, he was affectionate; as father, he was kind, as a citizen, quiet and law abiding; as a civil officer, he was faithful and just and charitable to his neighbors and true to his brethren.

Resolved—That, as a testimonial of our high esteem and regard for companion Tracy, our Chapter and its jewels be draped in mourning, and that each companion wear a badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved—That these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our Chapter, that a copy be furnished the "Hartford Herald" for publication, and that a manuscript copy, under the seal of the Chapter be delivered to his heart-stricken widow and family, to whom we tender our sincere condolence.

WHERAS, Our worthy and well beloved brother, John Parsons Tracy, who found a friend to bear his petition to our Masonic Lodge on 1st of May, 1854, and who was initiated a member June 5th, 1854, passed July 21st, 1877, and in the sublime degree of Master Mason on 7th of August, 1854, and who has filled acceptably and well every station in the Lodge from Steward to Master, has, after an active Masonic career of nearly twenty-three years, been called from labor below to refreshment in the Grand Celestial Lodge above; and whereas, brother Tracy exhibited during the whole of his Masonic life an ardent devotion to the principles of our beloved order, and ministering zeal in the efficient discharge of his various Masonic duties as evidenced by the unparalleled regularity of his attendance on the meetings of his Lodge, having failed to attend but two regular monthly meetings of that body during the last twenty years of his connection with it, and whereas it is usual on the occasion of the death of one of our brethren to take appropriate action to express our sorrow and perpetuate the memory of his virtues, therefore, be it

Resolved—That in the death of brother John Parsons Tracy our brotherhood has lost a most valuable and efficient member, society a worthy citizen, the community an industrial and skillful mechanic, and more than all an honest man.

Resolved—That brother Tracy will be sadly missed by our Lodge, that his extensive knowledge of the hidden mysteries of its symbolism and familiarity with its ritual, made him a more than ordinarily useful mason, and he reflected his masonic lessons in his intercourse with the world by the practice of sobriety in his habits, prudence and civility in his deportment, benevolence and charity to the needy and afflicted, and stubborn and unswerving honesty in his business transactions.

Resolved—That we recognized in brother Tracy a kind and obliging brother, who was ever willing and glad to dispense masonic light and knowledge to his less informed brethren, and we will ever treasure in our hearts a deep reverence for his many virtues, and cherish in our memories the fond recollection of his many good deeds of brotherly love, relief and truth.

Resolved—That we tender to his aged widow our kindest sympathy in her keen affliction, and to his grief-stricken children we offer our sincere condolence.

Resolved—That our Lodge be draped with mourning and that the brethren wear the usual badge for thirty days, and that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge, that a copy be presented to the family of our deceased brother, and that a copy be furnished the "Hartford Herald" for publication.

Beaver Dam Items.

BEAVER DAM, Feb. 29, 1877.

Editor Herald.
It used to be Hoggy, now it's very Hoggy. Do you reckon Bro. Barrett, that wonder will ever cease?

Do you know how much Kellogg, Wells & Co., received, or, have you the most remote idea how much Bradley got? Answer when you find out for certain.

But that does not make any difference with Beaver Dam—it will live and always prosper. W. H. Blankenship sold to I. E. Barnard last week, one house and lot for several hundred dollars. J. H. Miller sold to Dr. J. J. Mitchell, four town lots; to W. A. Austin, four, and to Mrs. Eliza Poyner one.

I. P. Barnard sold a large tract of land to W. H. Blankenship.

Rev. J. S. Coleman was in town during last week, and rented most all of his large tract of land, including two houses, to different parties, for much more than he anticipated doing.

A house belonging to E. D. Walker, one and one half miles from here, occupied by Berry Adams, was totally destroyed by fire, last Thursday night. The cause was accidental—most all of the household goods were saved.

Mrs. Alice Poyner and Harry Kahn returned last Friday from several weeks visit in Evansville.

He came from Hartford, Saturday afternoon and said: He—hic—I took nine drinks just—hic—before I—hic—left He—hic—I told you—hic—Hoggy—hic—would win—the—hic—fort—hic—and then rode on—only this and nothing more.

Mr. Lloyd Rogers, living near here, died Sunday night of pneumonia, he was an honored and respected citizen, and his loss will be deeply deplored by all who knew him.

HENRI.

IN MEMORIAM.

PRINCE OF WALES.

Breckinridge co., Feb. 1877.
Mrs. BETTIE ANN TRUMAN was born October 1st, 1837, and died February 4th, 1877. Having had early religious instruction, she professed faith in Christ in youth, and united with the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, at Freedom, Breckinridge county, Ky. Her maiden name was Morelock. She was married to H. C. Truman March 22, 1876.

She is not lost. She has only gone before. Those who loved her, and were so deeply grieved when she was taken away, have only to follow on. Husband, God has taken your loved one to the world above; follow on, holding steadfastly to the hope set before you in the Gospel. The day of your reunion draweth nigh, when you shall meet the absent before the Throne of God in the fullness of His glory. Thanks be unto God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Sister Truman leaves a kind husband, an aged father, brothers and sisters, and many friends to mourn the loss of one so kind, but she has crossed the river—thither we are tending. Our sister has gone home from troubles here below to rest in Heaven.

E. Small, Merchant Prince of the Trade Palace, lent for the East last Monday, where he will purchase a large stock of goods for the spring trade. Look out for the announcement of their arrival in these columns.

The Presidential muddle 'ow not affect the price of groceries at E. T. Williams. He sells just as usual, the best goods at the very lowest figures.

J. F. Yager will deliver good Coal at 9 cents per bushel.

Why is E. Small's Trade Palace to the ladies like a bar-room to an old toper? Because it is so tempting, she cannot pass it, but has to go in and look and sample some of the nice goods.

If you want to starve, why starve. But if you want to have good health and a clear conscience, go to the Lyon House, Hartford, Ky., for good square meals and first-class accommodations, at honest prices.

Why is it?

That some men, who have the reputation of being good business men, will waste their precious time in looking over all the stocks in town to buy a few articles of clothing or dry goods, when they could get their entire bill filled in a short time, and at less prices, by E. Small, at the TRADE PALACE.

Nervous Prostration.

Americans like Ortolan, of Basra, de sire that the golden stream should be sudden and violent, and in their anxiety to acquire wealth, overwhelm themselves with the cares of business, until their overtaxed systems are broken down under the pressure to which they are subjected. This is one prolific cause of nervous diseases so common in this country.

Another and probably a greater one is the very general propensity to run into excess in excitement and the use of Liquors and Tobacco, which soon ruin the strongest nervous organizations. Such sufferers have more difficulty in obtaining relief than almost any other class.

Dr. RACLIFF'S SEVEN SEALS OR GOLDEN WONDER is a sovereign remedy for all nervous affections, no matter how they were incurred. The worst cases of nervous debility have been cured with singular rapidity by its use. The SEVEN SEALS is a pure vegetable compound containing no poisonous or unwholesome ingredients, and acts directly upon the nervous system.
